The Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 aims to ensure transparency in the transactions entered into by the Company with its related parties from time to time. The provisions of Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") read with the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 as amended from time to time states that no company shall enter transaction with a Related Party except with the consent of the Board and members of the Company provided that nothing shall apply to any transactions entered into by the Company in its ordinary course of business other than transactions which are not on an arm's length basis. The transaction with the related parties as per the resolution as mentioned in Item no. 1 is at arm's length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company.

SEBI vide its notification has come up with SEBI (LODR) (Sixth Amendment) Regulations, 2021, in regard to dealings & transactions with Related Party, enhancing the scope of related party, related party transactions (RPTs), revision in threshold for 'materiality', concept of material modifications etc, and 'prior' approval of shareholders for all such material RPTs & subsequent material modifications and the same is effective from 01.04.2022 onwards. Pursuant to Regulation 23(2) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and amendments thereof, all related party transactions shall require prior approval of the audit committee. Pursuant to the aforesaid amendments in the regulation, the existing Policy on Related Party Transactions is hereby amended and the same is effective from 01.04.2022. Also, SEBI had laid down the information to be placed before Audit committee and shareholders for consideration of Related Party Transactions and disclosures thereon.

Thus, this transaction can qualify under material related party transactions in future. Accordingly, approval of the shareholders of the Company is sought for material related party transactions entered or to be entered with related parties by passing an Ordinary Resolution.

The proposed transaction involves entering into an Agreement ("Agreement") with PAYPERMINT PRIVATE LIMITED (PPL), details of which have been presented to the shareholders for their consideration;
